JUGHEAD NO. 146 JULY MEMBERSHIP — TWENTY CENTS

FIRST PRIZE — $5.00

REPORTER
PATRICIA WATSON
3422 East Taylor
Phoenix, Ariz.

Dear Archie,

Last summer my Aunt Helen, my sister Jacque and I went all over the northern part of Arizona (or just about). The first place we visited was Jerome. It is rapidly becoming one of Arizona's ghost towns. Next we went through Cottonwood to Montezuma Castle This is the best preserved of all cliff dwellings in the United States.

The next day we went to Montezuma Well, the well which is bottomless. In the afternoon of that day we went horseback riding in Oak Creek. We were quite tired after that and went back to our motel in Sedona.

Wednesday we went to Slide Rock in Oak Creek, and we had a blast! From there we went to Chapel of the Holy Cross. It was very nice.

Thursday we went to Meteor Crater. I didn't even know we were in it! From there we went to the beautiful Grand Canyon.

Friday, our last day, we went to the Grand Canyon Caverns and it wasn't what I had expected. Then it was back to good old Phoenix!

SECOND PRIZE — $3.00

REPORTER
ROSS MALLORY
1131 Rte De Jussy
Geneva, Switzerland

Dear Archie,

I am writing about the experience I went through on Sunday the 27th of November. I was in La Dole, France, skiing. I went up the ski-tow, followed by my brother and my friend. There was a part in the tow where it would start to take you up in the air. My brother fell off there, but my friend and I continued to the top. At the top it was very steep and then towards the end gradually leveled out. I started to go down the hill when a lady who had been standing still, suddenly went, too. I turned towards the deep snow to avoid her and did not quite make it. I turned a somersault on skis and landed all crossed up. The binding on my ski didn't come undone, so, some people came and sent for the first-aid man. He came with a sled, wrapped my leg with bandages, and put on a splint. He then skied down the hill with me on the sled and put me in the car. We then drove back to Geneva to the hospital, where they took X-rays and told me it was broken. They put the cast on and then I came home. In three weeks I might have crutches.

THIRD PRIZE — $2.00

REPORTER
NANCY ULRICH
38 Steuben Road
Peekskill, N.Y.

Dear Archie,

During the summer my sister found this little baby bluejay. Then she walked down the sidewalk, and she found another one. The first one didn't look well, but the other looked fine. They couldn't fly yet, so we got them in a big box and kept them. At first we didn't know what to feed them or how to take care of them. We knew a lady who knew how to take care of wild birds, so we called her up.

and she told us what to feed them. We fed them a hard boiled egg all smashed up without the white and a little water with some little pieces of bread in it. We kept them outside all the time, and at night we would bring them in. Every day we would go out and when we came back they would start putting their heads up and chirping as loud as they could. The lively one always ate a lot, but the weak one wouldn't eat much. We fed them their food with tweezers and milk with an eyedropper. One day we woke up and the weak one was dead. That night we had to go out, but we left the bluejay outside and when we came back he had flown away. Now every year he comes back to the trees around our house.

Dear Archie,

I would like to tell you about my pet parakeet. His name is Sugar, named mainly for his sweetness. His nickname is Eagle. Whenever we call him this he stands erect and proud. Sugar's intelligence is amazing. His vocabulary is tremendously growing each day. The words he now says are Sugar, Heh Boy, Give me a kiss, Baby Valerie, Hi Dad, Come here, Come on, baby, Bad birdie, and many others. He is learning to say "Merry Christmas." Most birds take at least one month to say a phrase, but Sugar is now only 1¼ years old.

We have to keep a clothespin on his cage door. He is so smart that if you take off the clothespin he can open it in five seconds. We let him out of his cage about twice a day. On the floor, he follows at my feet like a dog. He has a bell that he would do anything for. We have games that we play, such as Hide and Seek.

Recently he was sick, but recovered. We took him to the veterinarian. He prescribed a balanced diet of Canary & Budgie Seed, vitamins, iodine, meat, potatoes, apples, bread, bananas, etc. Sugar is just like a human being; talks, goes to the doctor, has a special diet and takes vitamins. These are just some of the comical things my bird does.

NORMAN ROCKWELL—America's most beloved artist. He is a founder and member of the Guiding Faculty of the Famous Artists School.

"We're looking for people who like to draw"

says NORMAN ROCKWELL

Today hundreds of men and women who never thought they could be artists are working at easels and drawing boards, making pictures and getting well paid for it. They all can thank a group of famous artists who have devoted much of their time and talent to helping others find success in art.

Some of the People the Famous Artists Have Helped

Carl Koch was an 18 year old apprentice in a Chicago art studio when he enrolled. Today he prepares ads for such companies as General Motors and Firestone—has won five gold medals.

Howard Sanden of Minneapolis took the Course while still in high school. He is now a successful artist—last year he and his wife traveled through Europe and the Middle East on important art assignments.

Paul Sullivan enrolled at 14. His Famous Artists training helped him work his way through college.

Stan Bowen, father of three children, was trapped in a dull, low-paying job. By studying with FAS he became a sought-after illustrator, has opened his own studio.

With Famous Artists training Rosemary Roberts was hired by a top department store as an artist—with a big chance to advance.

Oregon housewife Helen Tryk lives 150 miles from the nearest big city. But she does fashion illustration, has her own studio, runs an art workshop, does portraits.

A Plan to Help Others

It started over 18 years ago when a group of America's most successful artists—men like Albert Dorne, Norman Rockwell, Jon Whitcomb, Al Parker and Stevan Dohanos—met in New York City. They knew that all over America there were people who liked to draw who could be turned into good artists. Albert Dorne asked, "Why can't we give these people the training they need—including all the trade secrets and know-how we've learned over the years?"

He suggested a new kind of art school—a home study art school—that would give talented people the best professional art training, no matter where they live.

The famous artists agreed. Taking time from their busy careers, they created a remarkable series of art lessons covering every aspect of drawing and painting. They illustrated their lessons with over 5,000 "here's-how" illustrations. The lessons start from scratch and cover every skill a top artist needs. Finally, they developed a wonderful way to give each student personal correction and advice all through his training.

The famous artists with the School are not surprised at the success of their students. The opportunities open to successful artists today are enormous. The School continually gets calls from all over the country asking for practical well-trained students—not geniuses—who can step into full-time or part-time art jobs. And practical, thorough training is what the School offers.

Famous Artists Talent Test

To find others with art talent worth developing, the Famous Artists created a 12-page talent test. Thousands paid to take this test, but now the School offers and grades it free. Men and women who do well on the test—or offer other evidence of art talent—may enroll in the School. But there's no obligation. Simply mail the coupon below.
